CS9 Cycle superhighway: Reaction to TfL's announcement

Commenting, Tony Devenish AM, whose West Central constituency includes Hammersmith, said: "If Sadiq Khan and TfL try to push ahead with this scheme against the wishes of local residents then they deserve the backlash such a decision would inevitably receive.

"Both Hammersmith and Chiswick would benefit from improved cycling infrastructure, but that should mean working with local communities to find solutions that work for residents."

Tony Arbour, whose South West constituency covers Chiswick, said: "This looks like the consultation has been undermined by people who live nowhere near the areas affected and who have little or no understanding of the needs of our communities.

"I am calling on Sadiq Khan to halt these proceedings and work with residents and politicians of all parties who agree that the current plans are not good enough. Any scheme that narrows pavements on Chiswick High Road is completely unacceptable."
